Indiana Banker Lucas White Elected ICBA Immediate Past Chairman

Press Release: Nashville, Tenn. (March 14, 2025) — Lucas White, president of The Fountain Trust Co. in Covington, Ind., will serve as immediate past chairman of the Independent Community Bankers of America® (ICBA) for 2025-26. His term begins March 14 at the conclusion of ICBA LIVE in Nashville.

"It's been an honor and a privilege to represent our industry," said White. "Shining a light on community banks and their work empowering local communities has been a pleasure and source of pride. I look forward to continuing this vital work as immediate past chairman with unwavering support for ICBA's mission to ensure community banks foster local prosperity."

White serves in many leadership roles at ICBA, including on the Executive Committee, board of directors, and Federal Delegate Board. He is chairman of the ICBA Nominating Committee and a member of the Policy Development Committee, as well as Executive Committee liaison for the ICBA's Political Action Committee, ICBA PAC. White previously served as ICBA Chairman for 2024-25.

A fourth-generation community banker, White is an active member of his community and is a partner at White & White Attorneys LLP and a trustee of the Booe Inlow d'Arlier Charitable Foundation. He also serves on the West Central Regional Community Corrections Board and is a member of the Covington Business Association. He is a current member and past chairman of the Indiana Bankers Association.

"Lucas is a one-of-a-kind community banker and a staunch advocate for our industry," said ICBA Chairman Jack Hopkins, president and CEO of CorTrust Bank in Sioux Falls, S.D. "I am honored to work alongside him as a member of ICBA's Executive Committee and follow in his footsteps in steering our industry toward continued success."

ICBA is the only national advocacy organization dedicated exclusively to promoting the interests of locally operated community banks and savings institutions. With the high-tech, high-touch banking services that consumers expect, community banks offer the best financial-services options for millions of consumers, small businesses, and agricultural enterprises.
